HOUSTON

FOR (ABSOLUTE) BEGINNERS

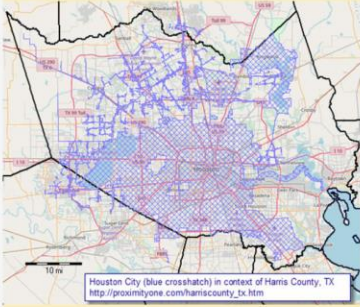

HELLO WORLD!

This is Houston, a.k.a. H-Town.
The largest city in Texas and the 4th largest city in the United States of America.
I call it home, since 2019.

HARRIS COUNTY

Houston City (blue crosshatch) in context of Harris County, TX
<http://groundbyte.com/harriscounty-to.htm>

This is Houston, officially. Houston was founded by the first colonist back in 1836. It is the most diverse city in the world, today, Houston is the second fastest-growing major city in the United States. This rapid increase has likely been due to growth in Houston's major industries, specifically medicine, oil and gas, and aeronautics. "Houston" was the first word spoken on the Moon. For Houstonians, Earth is only the beginning. The first human city in space will be named "New Houston", I hope.

NASA

Everybody loves NASA. Older Houstonians remember the first human space flights. Lyndon B. Johnson Space Center, is nicknamed "Space City" in 1967. It is not NASA, officially, but after Kennedy Space Center in Florida it is the most important NASA facility. Johnson Space Center leads NASA's human spaceflight-related scientific and medical research programs. Technologies developed for spaceflight are now in use in many areas. It is popularly known by its radio call signs "Mission Control" and "Houston".
